

Mobilesoft, LLC & G.O. Ministries Partner To Deliver for Gods Kingdom

“From the ashes comes a match made in Heaven”

The Haiti earthquake disaster was tragic and heartbreaking but there is some good that has come up from those ashes. Immediately after the Haiti earthquake disaster, Americans used their cell phones to send text messages pledging more than $30 million within 10 days for Haitian relief efforts, according to figures released by the Mobile Giving Foundation. This disaster and new mobile initiative has brought together Mobilesoft, LLC www.mobilesoftllc.com and G.O. Ministries www.go-ministries.org.

Brook Brotzman, Founder of G.O. Ministries said, “Our charter here at G.O Ministries is to challenge people of all ages to see the world from God's perspective and become personally involved in world missions. We are an organization passionate about the work of nationals who desire to meet the physical and spiritual needs in their communities by becoming Christ to them in word and action.

We have seen how the Mobilesoft, LLC team works and we have come to know the Mobilesoft, LLC executives. Both organizations have hearts for God's work and the furthering of The Kingdom of God. We are pleased that Mobilesoft, LLC has become a committed giving partner and we are excited about working together with the entire Mobilesoft, LLC team. ”

Kirk Howell, President of Mobilesoft, LCC said, “we're motivated about our partnership with G.O. Ministries and we want to publically thank G.O. Ministries and Brook Brotzman for their faith in us. G.O. Ministries has taken a real step of faith and has invested in our business and more importantly invested in our spirits; they are truly our partners. Additionally, it is our hope that everyone will come to know G.O. Ministries and give to this wonderful cause; it is our prayer that everyone will come to know Jesus Christ as their savior and Lord.
